

- a. The British Columbia Supreme Court, Vancouver Registry has sole jurisdiction over the Children;
- b. The Defendant will not commence any application for custody, guardianship, or access in any other jurisdiction other than the Province of British Columbia;
- c. During the entire period the Defendant is in Japan with the Children, she will stay at the home of her parents, Goro and Hiroko Maniwa at 4338-0007 Saitamaken Saitama City Ennami, 4-4-20 048-855-5736. If the Defendant changes her plans and stays elsewhere in Japan, she will immediately email the new contact information to the Plaintiff.
- d. Upon the Defendant's return from Japan, and in any event, no later than 19:00, Thursday, December 9, 2004, the Defendant will return the Children's passports to the Plaintiff.
- e. The Defendant will have the Children communicate with the Plaintiff at least two times by telephone between 18:00 and 20:00 Pacific Standard Time while the Children are in Japan.
- f. The Children will be returned to the Plaintiff at 19:00 on Thursday, December 9, 2004.

AND THIS COURT FURTHER ORDERS THAT:

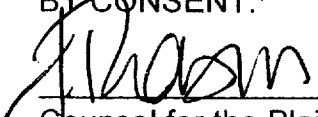

6. The Order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Hood pronounced February 18, 2004 will be varied as follows:
 - a. in the years where the Easter weekend falls at the end of Spring Break, Easter access will commence at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday of that week.
 - b. in place of Paragraph 4 of the Order of Mr. Justice Hood, the Children will telephone the Defendant at her home twice per week during the weeks the Defendant does not have access to the Children. If the Children cannot reach the Defendant by phone, they are not required to send an email to the Defendant.
 - c. the Defendant's weekend access will commence at 4:00 p.m. each Friday afternoon rather than at 5:00 p.m.
 - d. the Defendant shall be restrained and enjoined from harassing, annoying or communicating with the Plaintiff's parents, namely Alexander Ian Murray Wood and Marilyn Fay Wood and the Plaintiff's partner, Brett Whitelaw.

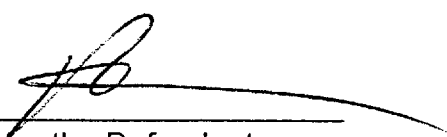

e. the remainder of the Order of Mr. Justice Hood pronounced February 18, 2004 remains in effect.

BY THE COURT

DISTRICT REGISTRAR

APPROVED AS TO FORM AND
BY CONSENT:-

Counsel for the Plaintiff

Counsel for the Defendant

ENTERED

NOV 26 2004
VANCOUVER REGISTRY
VOL. D359 FOL. 8